

MY LIFE STORY
BY GEOFF WRIGHT

This book was written in 1999.

For several years I had collected information about my family and had written brief histories of Wrights Bus Service, Lincolnshire Flying Services, my schooldays and RAF service.

Then I saw an article in the Congleton Chronicle inviting people wishing to write their life story to enroll for a 20 week course. It was to be run by the author, Tamar Hodge, at the Victoria Theatre in Stoke on Trent and was sponsored by Age Concern. I applied and was accepted. It proved to a most enjoyable and enlightening experience.

We were asked not to consult family or friends so the resulting story is entirely my own work. On re-reading the script I feel that I have placed too much emphasis on my working life rather than on the family and for this I apologise.
